

TEAM BEHAVIOR INTERVENTION PLAN

Student Name: ██████████ Grade: 9 Report By: Ryan O'Leary Date: 5/1/18
Problem Behavior:	Effort and follow through
Replacement Behavior: What is expected?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Study and prepare for assessment - Turning assignments in on time
Student Strengths:	Presentations, Social, Active
Method of Teaching Replacement Behavior and By Whom: How will we teach the desired behavior and who will teach it?	<input type="checkbox"/> Discuss behavior contract, by: Looking over the contract with ██████████ and explain the behavior expectations his teachers want to see. <input type="checkbox"/> Use of teacher(s), by: Teaching ██████████ how to use a planner effectively and meeting with him every Friday in order to talk about homework and grades from the previous week.
Accommodations, Interventions, and Who's Responsible: What help will we give the student to help him/her succeed? It is VERY important these accommodations and/or recommendations be followed consistently by teacher(s), aides, and school staff.	Accommodations to assist the student in displaying the replacement behavior: <input type="checkbox"/> Personal Responsibility: Teaching how to become responsible for his academics. <input type="checkbox"/> Make a timeline/review dates: Construct a planner <hr style="width: 50%; margin: 10px auto;"/> Interventions & Who's Responsible for Them: Ryan O'Leary will meet with ██████████ every Friday in order to review his upcoming assignments and study habits.
Method of Progress Monitoring and Length: How will we know if it's working?	<input type="checkbox"/> Direct observation <input type="checkbox"/> Self-monitoring <input type="checkbox"/> Weekly meetings
Positives for Appropriate Behavior: What can the student earn?	<input type="checkbox"/> Verbal praise <input type="checkbox"/> Immediate feedback
Negative Consequences for Inappropriate Behavior: If student does not act appropriately?	<input type="checkbox"/> Detention <input type="checkbox"/> Send to office <input type="checkbox"/> In-school suspension
Parent Contact Dates:	Student emails every Friday starting 5/4/18
Notes:	Landon is incredibly intelligent, we are taking action in order to help him succeed.

Student Signature: _____

Parent Signature: _____

Entered into Mileposts? Y/N
 Copy to Parents? Y/N
 Copy for Student? Y/N